

Remortgaging – additional fees you might need to pay

Our Society was founded over 130 years ago when a group of people came together to help each other buy homes of their own. And that's still our purpose today. We've moved on a bit since then. Nowadays, when you remortgage your home, you'll pay a fixed, guaranteed fee when you use our Conveyancing Service.

But there may be other costs you haven't considered, such as extra work or services that aren't covered by the standard conveyancing fee. And it's only fair to let you know about these now so there are no nasty surprises down the line.

So, how do you know if you'll need to pay additional fees? Well, your conveyancer will talk with you to find out what you need. If any additional work or services are required, you'll need to give your consent to these first – you won't be charged a penny for these until we have your OK to go ahead.

And so you know upfront what kind of work or services you'll need to pay extra for, here are some examples of some of the most common additional fees:
